To Whom It May Concern:

I'm happy to recommend Matt, who reports to me and has been a consistently strong contributor on our team. Matt is a solid developer with a genuine passion for learning and self-improvement. Over the past year in particular, he has clearly invested significant time and effort into sharpening his development skills, and the growth has been noticeable in both the quality of his work and his confidence tackling more complex problems.

Beyond his technical ability, Matt brings a great attitude to the team. He's curious, receptive to feedback, and proactive about expanding his skill set rather than staying comfortable with what he already knows. He collaborates well with others and contributes positively to team discussions, making him someone others enjoy working with.

Matt would be a welcome addition to any team I lead, and I'm confident he'll continue to grow into an even stronger developer wherever he goes.

Sincerely,

Alan Fitzgerald
